VOLUME CVII.--NO. 95. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 19, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTY OF MERIT.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's pecular diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate, nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the ablest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famed medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

To Issue $200,000,000 Bonds.

At a special meeting in Richmond yesterday morning the stockholders of the Southern Railway Company authorized an issue of $200,000,000 in 50-year 4 per cent. bonds.

The issue of these bonds is part of the general scheme for developing and strengthening the system. Of the total amount there will be an immediate issue of $15,000,000 for the following purposes: To refund payment for equipment heretofore made and charged to capital; to refund investment in securities and advance to subordinate companies heretofore made and for the acquisition of property not heretofore funded, and for double track, revision of grade, new yards, shops, etc.

The remainder, of $185,000,000, will be reserved for the following purposes:

To retire divisional prior lien bonds on properties acquired on which no provision is made in the consolidated mortgage.

To retire not later than April 1, 1909, collateral trusts 5 per cents.

To retire as they may mature in the next 15 years equipment capital obligations.

To acquire capital stock of certain leased lines.

To pay not later than July 1, 1908, for the eastern division of the Tennessee Central and immediate improvements.

After provisions for the foregoing obligations are made the remainder will be utilized for future acquisitions and betterments.

To obtain the bonds a new general mortgage is to be created, which will be made to the Standard Trust Company of New York, and secured by a prior lien upon additional property acquired since the creation of the first consolidated mortgage, in 1894, and on properties covered by existing divisional prior lien mortgages which the new bonds are to refund.

The Richards Trial.

The third day of the second trial at Floyd Courthouse of John W. Richards, the University of Virginia medical student and former public school teacher, charged with the murder of his rival in love, Maurice Francis, at Roanoke, who was shot from ambush in the public road near Floyd last July while riding in a buggy to visit Miss Gracie Link, to whom he was engaged to be married, was taken up with testimony of witnesses for the prosecution yesterday.

Oscar Conner, one of the men who found Francis after he was riddled with buckshot, testified to finding a loaded pistol under the seat of Francis' buggy. This evidence was not brought out at the first trial. The witness did not know what became of the pistol, and it has never been produced in court.

Another witness was D. W. Tice, who discovered tracks in the woods near where Francis was shot and discovered the leaves and twigs had been cut off by greased shot.

Miss Gracie Link, the fiancee of the dead man, went on the stand and told of her engagement to Francis and of her attempt to get rid of Richards attentions. His letters were introduced and identified by the witness. One letter was from Miss Link to Richards telling him not to come to see her, and another was from Richards to Miss Link, in which he complained bitterly of her attitude towards him.

Troops and Strikers Fight.

A conflict between troops and strikers occurred near Lens, France, yesterday. The strikers, marching from Lievin, sacked the residence of a mine official, and tearing down the shutters used them as shields against the weapons of the soldiers, a number of whom were injured by missiles.

The troops were compelled to call for reinforcements and cavalry charges followed. The strikers sought refuge behind the railroad embankment and erected a barricade, from which position they were dislodged by gendarmes. A number of miners were wounded. After this collision the crowds marched through the town singing revolutionary songs. The market at Lievin was partially pillaged and the dealers fled.

Strikers during the day attacked a train conveying salvagers and stoned the escort of cavalry, wounding several of the troopers.

Fighting between troops and strikers continued throughout the afternoon. The strikers finally retired behind a barricade, from the shelter of which they showered stones upon the soldiers. After a time a magistrate read the riot act and the soldiers loaded their rifles with ball cartridges, whereupon the strikers dispersed.

Many men and horses were severely injured. The situation is very grave.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets Stomach, Liver and Kidneys right, purifies the blood and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weaknesses. Wonderful Nerve Tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

No Action Taken.

With considerable ill feeling and no agreement on ony phase of the controversy on the railroad-rate bill a conference of democratic Senators, which continued practically all day yesterday, was adjourned at 4:45 o'clock without any date having been fixed for another gathering.

Speeches were made counseling an agreement on some amendment or to support the House bill without amendment, party harmony being urged as judicious politics. This programme, tentatively, was adopted. Senator Bailey then called from the room some of the supporters of his amendments for a limited court review and for nonsuspension of orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission. During their consultation a motion to adjourn was made by Senator Rayner and carried.

When Senator Bailey and his colleagues returned they found the conference broken up. The Texas Senator protested hotly against the course taken, and said, finally, that he was tempted to take a vow not to participate in another democratic conference.

The general expression of opinion, however, was that the differences would be smoothed over, and that with a few days another effort would be made to get the minority together.

Lord Fairfax's Commission

Among documents bought yesterday by Dr. Charles J. Vonwitt, a Winchester optician, was found the original commission of Thomas Lord Fairfax, Baron of Cameron, who was the famous owner of Greenway Court, in Clarke county, and who was the owner of a greater part of the Northern Neck of Virginia. The document is beautifully engraved on old parchment, and is dated in England in 1788. The body of Lord Fairfax is buried under Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, in Winchester.

THURSDAY EVENING. APRIL 19, 1906.

THERE IS nothing truer than the old adage, "Times change and men change with them." When President McKinley was killed and for a considerale time thereafter, anarchists roosted low in this country and the most blatant of that ilk became tame enough to eat from the hand. But they are becoming bolder now and so much latitude is given them that their boldness is not to be wondered at. Last week it was published broadcast that a foreign anarchist, who had openly stated that he intended killing the President, had been ordered to leave the country. Instead he should have been imprisoned for life, or, still better, should have been hanged. A few days later it was published that secret service men were much concerned about the movements of prominent anarchists and also about the report that a convention of anarchists would be held in this country in August next, which would be attended by delegates from all over the world. If this convention is held and trouble or calamity follow, the authorities would have only themselves to blame and should be held to a strict accountability. Anarchists should be shown no consideration whatever in this country; they should be stamped out of any community in which they appear. Their doctrine is one of Godlessness, lawlessness, destructiveness and murder. The United States should be no place for them.

A NEWS item in another column announces the consolidation of the two evening newspapers of Norfolk, the Ledger and the Dispatch, and the disappearance of the latter. The Ledger in making the announcement briefly says:

Realizing the fact that this field is not sufficient to take financial care of two large afternoon newspapers, the interests of The Public Ledger and Norfolk Dispatch have been merged, with a division of securities satisfactory to both papers.

This means the end of a long and hard fight and is a new illustration of the fact, so often proved, so frequently forgotten, that in the newspaper business, as in all others, it is impossible to force demand beyond the capacity of the territory. As says the Richmond News Leader, a recent consolidation of two newspapers in that city:

In a community of so many people there is room for so many newspapers, costing so much money. It is a matter of mathematics and as clearly demonstrated and unalterably fixed as any other rule or principle of nature or trade. There was room in Norfolk for but one newspaper of the class of the Public Ledger and the Dispatch. One of them had to die. The Public Ledger had the enormous advantage of occupying the ground first, and having an established name, place, following and organization. How vast that advantage is few people outside the newspaper business appreciate, and even many who know that business fail to comprehend.

IN A message to Congress yesterday afternoon, as was mentioned in the Gazette of that day, President Roosevelt expressed his disapproval of the recent decision of Judge Humphrey in the beef packers' cases, and calls upon Congress to enact such legislation as will prevent such miscarriages of justice in the future. While the decision was obviously a wrong one, the President fears that it may be accepted as the construction of the law which the courts will follow, and therefore he points out the necessity of legislation. He asks for a law that will give the government the right to appeal from such decisions, and also a declaration from Congress that its anti-trust legislation was not intended to accord immunity to all persons from whom officers of the government obtain information when conducting investigations under the express direction of Congress. He shows clearly that the very purposes of Congress in creating the Bureau of Corporations and the Interstate Commerce Commission may be defeated by such action of the courts as that taken by Judge Humphrey, and that the effect of legislation can be nullified and destroyed.

THE republican party has brought the country to a shocking state of affairs and there is no end to the scandals and exposures that are constantly being brought to light. That keen observer of affairs, the New York Post, says:

The present is a period of havoc and upheaval. The gale of reform that rages o'er the land lays bare most hideous conditions. A dollarized society, insensible to all but pricking selfishness, makes possible corruption high and low. Bribe, graft, knavery, exploitation, investigation, disclosure, confusion, shame, in all the avenues of activity the public ferret is at work. This is a period of iconoclasm. Idol after idol crumbles in the fierce glare of revelations. An age whose mighty achievements are grounded on confidence finds itself at the apex of its triumph preoccupied in revealing vain betrayals of trust. And the bewildered soul shacked into uncertainty snatches desperately after fragments of that primal faith which binds society together, fearful lest the slow fruits of an agelong altruism be lost to this universal exploitation.

IT WAS hoped that today's dispatches from California would show that those of yesterday were greatly exaggerated, but, on the contrary, advices today confirm previous reports. It is still said that the loss of life will reach two thousand. Large numbers of people in San Francisco, many suffering from injuries, are homeless, while flames are driving the unfortunates from place to place. The water works are destroyed and the supply of dynamite has been exhausted. There is nothing to do but to allow the fire to burn out. Other places in the neighborhood of the ill fated city have suffered seriously, and thousands are homeless in cities and towns a mile away from the centre of the disturbance. The loss to property runs into hundreds of millions.

From Washington.

Washington, April 19.

The executive committee of the Red Cross has received prompt responses from the State secretaries of the organization to the call for funds for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers sent out yesterday. The Red Cross is anxious that all contributions be centralized in the fund which the executive committee will have in charge. The Red Cross in California is well organized and, it is thought, better able to make expenditures to the greatest advantage than any other organization or individuals.

The quartermaster general this morning received a telegram from the depot quartermaster at Philadelphia stating that the 2,435 tents ordered sent to San Francisco will be under way this afternoon. General Sharpe, the commissary general of the army, has telegraphed his officers at the big food purchasing centers to be in readiness to ship immense quantities of food supplies to San Francisco upon short call.

Secretary of War Taft, Chief of Staff Bell, Quartermaster General Humphreys and Commissary General Sharpe spent nearly the entire night sending orders to General Funston and other officers in the west relative to the relief of the sufferers at San Francisco. An order went to Vancouver Barracks to ship immediately 200,000 rations. Thousands of tents have also been ordered to be sent from various army posts on the coast. A telegram from Oakland reports that the army depot at San Francisco, adjoining the Palace Hotel, has been destroyed with thousands of dollars worth of army supplies contained therin.

By direction of the Secretary of War the commissary general of the army has been ordered to send 200,000 more rations from Denver Colo., and other western supply depots, to San Francisco. This makes a total of 400,000 rations ordered today to San Francisco, the other 200,000 having been sent from Portland, Ore. The subsistence department of the army expects to have 1,000,000 rations in San Francisco within ten days. These will cost in the neighborhood of $88,000. Secretary Taft has also issued orders to send additional conical tents to San Francisco.

Two small after-shocks of the San Francisco earthquake were recorded on the seismograph at the U. S. Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C during the night of April 18th and the morning of the 19th. The first shock was decidedly stronger than the other one, although both were very slight compared to the original disturbance. The principal portion, that is, the strong motion in the first shock occured at 8:46 p. m. and in the second shock about 2:03 a. m. The motion in the second shock was especially feeble and ill defined.

Surgeon General O'Reilly of the army this morning telegraphed his chief surgeon in charge of the big army medical supply depot at St. Louis to be in readiness to ship to San Francisco large quantities of medical supplies of all sorts. The army medical department in the city of San Francisco has been instructed to lend aid to the civil authorities in every way possible. There are nearly thirty army doctors stationed either in San Francisco or in the immediate vicinity of the city. At the Presidio of San Francisco there is a large general hospital capable of accomodating over 400 patients.

The commanders of the revenue cutters on the Pacific coast have received orders to cooperate with the War Department authorities in extending aid to the earthquake victims. The Perry is now at Astoria, Oregon, and has been ordered to proceed to San Francisco with a cargo of supplies with all possible speed.

The War Department this afternoon received the following dispatch from General Funston, dated San Francisco: "9:15 a. m. City still burning. Could not be worse."

The resolution passed by the Senate looking to the relief of the San Francisco sufferers, will be amended in the House, by making the amount available $1,000,000 instead of $500,000.

The War Department estimates the loss of quartermaster and commissary supplies alone at San Francisco to be $2,500,000.

President Roosevelt today received a number of cablegrams from foreign sovereigns expressing sympathy on account of the San Francisco horror.

The President today appointed C. A. Lacey to be postmaster at Houston, Va.

Messrs. A. D. Brockett, W. A. Smoot, jr., and Jas. Patterson, of Alexandria, accompanied by Congressman Rixey, appeared before the District of Columbia House committee today to urge against the passage of the bill which requires that all wagons which weigh over 4,000 pounds and which use the roads, streets and bridges in the District shall be fitted with wheels having tires four inches wide. The committee will report the bill favorably, but, it is said, will amend it so as to make the weight of the wagoas 4,500, instead of 4,000 pounds.

Elliott Northcott, chairman of the West Virginia republican State committee is to be asked to resign the place on the committee, or give up his job as assistant U. S. District Attorney. Senator Scott called at the White House this morning to have a talk with the President about the State political situation and during the chat it was decided that it would be expedient for federal officeholders to resign such controlling positions as they may be at present holding in political organizations. It is not likely that Mr. Northcott will be obliged to leave the committee altogether, and it is understood that U. S. Marshall Elliott, another member of the State committee, will be allowed to hold on.

Secretary Shaw, of the Treasury Department, today authorized the transfer of $10,000,000 to the Wells-Fargo Express Company at San Francisco.

Mrs. Jane Ginn, widow of James Ginn, died yesterday evening at her home, near Boyce, Clarke county, aged 84 years. She was a native of Alexandria. Twelve children, one brother and five sisters survive her.

News of the Day.

Guggenheim's Sons, of New York, have contributed $50,000 to the San Francisco sufferers.

Father Gapon, the labor leader, is missing from St. Petersburg, and it is thought he has been kidnapped.

Prof. Currie, the discovery of radium, died at Paris today, as the result of injuries sustained in a carriage accident.

Father Louis Martin, general of the Jesuits, known as the "Black Pope," died in Rome yesterday from cancer of the chest.

Abranoff, the Cossack officer who was charged with cruelly treating Maria Spiridonovo while in his charge, was assassinated at Borissogliebsk

Secretary Taft, before the Senate committee on interoceanic canals, said yesterday unless the type of canal was soon decided upon all work on the enterprise must cease.

In a special message to Congress yesterday President Roosevelt declares the decision of Judge Humphrey in the beefpackers' case to be a miscarriage of justice, and asks Congress to pass a declaratory act to remedy the evil.

Dr. Lewis Mackall, the oldest physician in point of practice in the District of Columbia, died yesterday morning at his home, in Georgetown, after an illness of nine weeks. Dr. Mackall was born in Prince George county, Md., April 10, 1831.

The bill to extend the national irrigation laws to Texas was passed by the House yesterday after a protracted debate. A resolution was agreed to instructing the War and Navy Departments to take all necessary steps to aid the suffering in California by the issuance of tents, rations, and other supplies. Consideration of the District appropriation bill was begun. The House, passed resolutions of sympathy for the people of California.

A telegram from the Government observatory at Laibach, Austria, says that from 2.25 to 2.59 o'clock yesterday afternoon the seismograph recorded a district earthquake of great force and destructiveness. The indications showed that the disturbances were much more violent than those which recently occurred in Formosa. As the difference in time between San Francisco and Vienna is 9 hours and 6 minutes, it follows that the disturbance shown by the seizmograph at Laibach practically synchronized with the first earthquake shock experienced at San Francisco, at 5:13 yesterday.

Haines & Cochran, bankers and brokers of Philadelphia, today announced their inability to meet their contracts.

Over $32,000 in cash was contributed to the Memorial Continental Hall fund at the afternoon session of the congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution yesterday, in Washington, by the various organized chapters and numerous friends of the society. This, together with the final disposition of the "Montana matter," formed the feature of the third day's session.

The Montana amendment read as follows: "Amend the constitution, article 4, section 3, by inserting after the words 'no State' the following: 'Regent, State vice regent.'"

Mrs. Haskell, regent of the Silver Bow Chapter, moved to amend the amendment by adding the words "an actual" resident of the State. She then defined the legal difference between the "legal" and the "actual" residence of a citizen.

After considerable discussion the amendment as amended by Mrs. Haskell, requiring "actual" residence, was adopted.

The president general announced that the amendment took immediate effect, which had the effect of ruling off the floor all State vice regents not actual residents of the States they represented.

Connecticut carried off the double honor of making both the largest State individual contribution, the State donation amounting to $6,490.75 and the individual gift of Mrs. Frank W. Benedict being $6,000.

The reception given in the ballroom suite of the New Willard last night to the Daughters of the American Revolution by Mrs. Donald McLean, the president general, was one of the most successful social affairs ever given there. The throng was representative of the society, the beautiful gowns and the fine jewels of the women making the scene one of dazzling beauty.

Mrs. McLean was assisted in receiving by the national officers and several State regents.

The reception by Mrs. Fairbanks yesterday evening was also largely attended. Mrs. Fairbanks was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Timmons, and by Miss Margaret Wade, who poured coffee. Mrs. Fairbanks looked unusually handsome in a gown of blue satin, while Mrs. Timmons was gowned in pale pink satin trimmed with chiffon.

Letter to J. H. Crilly, Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: A barber in Erie, Pa. has been teaching two hotel men how to paint.

Mr Christ Wissard is the barber. Three years ago he painted his house and shop Devoe.

A year afterward, the hotels across the street—they are all on corners—were painted, not Devoe.

The story don't tell the first half of the facts: how much the three paints cost per square foot. It tells how they looked last year.

The laugh was not on the barber. His house and shop looked new; the hotels had begun to look old; they'll paint Devoe next time; and next time will come pretty soon.

Yours truly

At a meeting of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia last night Armistead C. Gordon, of Staunton, was elected rector, to succeed Charles Pinckney Jones, of Highland, whose term as member of the board had expired. While tearing down an old house near Roanoke yesterday G. G. Gish, a well-known farmer, found an iron pot containing $4,000 in gold buried in a chimney back of the fireplace. Besides the money there was a large quantity of silverware and a fine gold watch and some trinkets wrapped in a Masonic apron. Gish recently returned to Virginia from Kansas. He purchased the house at a cheap price, and was tearing it down to make way for a new dwelling. The house had been standing many years. No one has so far laid claim to the gold.

Mrs. W. H. Ribble, jr., wife of a Wytheville physician, was fatally injured and A. B. Stewart, brother of Mr Henry Stuart, of the State Corporation Commission, was seriously hurt in a runaway accident near Wytheville late yesterday afternoon while driving in the country. Their horse took fright at a train and dashed along the road, throwing the occupants out of the vehicle. Mrs. Ribble struck on her head and has been unconscious several hours. Physicians say she cannot recover. Mr. Stuart had his collarbone broken in two places, a shoulder dislocated and was otherwise injured.

James Arthur Reagan, former president of the Danville Commercial Association, accidentally killed himself yesterday while hunting robins in a vacant lot opposite his residence in Danville. About 10 o'clock, Mr. Reagan was discovered dead under a tree in the lot with the gun under his body. Several people passing by noticed Mr. Reagan carrying his gun carelessly on his shoulder, and it is supposed that he fell and the discharge occurred. The left side of his face was badly mutilated, and the load from the gun entered his throat, severing the jugular vein.

Mrs. Emily C. Roak, 19 years old, wife of Motorman J. H. Roak, of Manchester, was burned from her waist to her head yesterday morning when about finishing the preparation of her husband's breakfast. One cover to the stove bears the full print of her hand. Her husband says she had fainting spells. He thinks she fainted and fell across the stove and her clothes caught from the opening from which the plate had been removed. The neighbors heard the screams of her one-year-old child and a heavy fall. They found the young woman prostrate and her clothes burned off above the waist and her hair burned away. She is in a critical condition.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

SENATE.

Immediately after convening today the Senate passed a resolution appropriating $500,000 for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, who is authorized to employ steamers and other means of transportation to convey supplies to the striken city.

The bill appropriating $5,000 for the bringing home of the dead of the Kearsarge was passed in the Senate today, immediately upon its receipt from the House.

Mr. Tillman demanded an investigation of "wealthy rascals."

Mr. Hopkins characterized Mr. Tillman as a Don Quixote.

In one of the most forceful speeches yet delivered in the Senate on the railroad rate question Senator Lafollette, of Wisconsin, riddled the Hepburn bill, pointing out its inadequacy to remedy the crying evils of railroad monopoly and discrimination.

HOUSE.

Chaplain Couden in the House today asked divine strength and blessing upon those who are sufferers through the California disaster.

Mr. Patterson, democrat, Tennessee, was sworn as a member.

Mr. Patterson has been engaged in the fight for the governorship of his State, and today marks his first appearance in the House this session.

Mr. Williams served notice that until the conferees have reported on statehood bill, all requests for unanimous consent will be denied and no bills will be passed unless they come under the rules of the House or under a special rule.

The resolution for the relief of the California sufferers, as amended by Representative Tawney, carrying a $1,000,000 appropriation, was presented to the House at 2:25, promptly passed, and returned to the Senate for its concurrence.

Trial of Congressman Blackburn.

Greensboro, N. C., April 19.—The evidence in the case of Congressman Spencer Blackburn, charged with practicing before the departments in Washington while a congressman, was concluded this morning and argument was begun, the government opening. The general opinion is that the government has failed utterly to make out its case.

The California Earthquake.

The horrors of the earthquake at San Francisco yesterday is the main topic of conversation throughout the civilized world. As more authentic information is received it is seen that the number of deaths reported in the first dispatch was exaggerated. Several hundreds, however, did lose their lives by the convulsion, while about one hundred blocks of buildings were destroyed.

Other places also suffered greatly from the shocks.

It is reported that Leland Stanford University, at Palo Alto, was destroyed with the exception of one building. Two persons were killed and a number injured.

Palo Alto is thirty miles south of San Francisco, on the coast line of the Southern Pacific Railroad. The town of Palo Alto has a population of about 5,000.

It is also reported that the Agnew Asylum, near San Jose, is a total wreck; that many of the inmates were killed, and that the remainder are running around loose, terrorizing the community. The superintendent of the institution and his wife were both killed.

Reports from cities near San Francisco show the destruction was widespread.

Santa Rosa, sixty miles north, is in flames, and the damage is more than $1,000,000. The loss of life is not known.

San Jose, fifty miles south, lost many buildings, and probably fifty persons were killed. The annex of the Vendome Hotel collapsed and fires broke out. One report says every stone or brick building was damaged or destroyed.

At Napa many buildings were shattered and the loss will amount to $800,000. No loss of life is reported.

At Vallejo the damage was slight in comparison with that suffered in other cities. The loss will be about $10,000.

At 5:15 o'clock yesterday morning three shocks of earthquake shook Salinas, lasting, respectively, five, three, and forty-two seconds. They came from the northeast and southwest. The damage is $2,500,000. No lives were lost in Salinas. At 2:25 o'clock yesterday a ternoon another shock was experienced, but no lives were lost. Several men, women, and children were cut about the face by flying glass. There was intense excitement.

At Watsonville, the Moreland Academy was destroyed by fire, and several buildings collapsed.

At Monterey and Pacific Grove there was a slight shock that caused little damage.

At the Delmonte Hotel, three chimneys fell through the roof, killing a bridal pair and a hotel servant, and injuring several other persons.

At Hollister, Grangers' Union warehouse was destroyed. Mrs. Griffith was killed, and her husband became crazed on account of the shock.

A bulletin received at the War Department from Oakland, Cal., last night at 11 o'clock stated that four men had been shot without warning while robbing the dead. Soldiers are patrolling the streets and have orders to shoot persons without warning who act suspiciously.

The last word received at the War Department was to the effect that another sharp earthquake was felt on the Oakland side of the bay and lasted five seconds. This was at 10:40 last night, 7:40 San Francisco time. This shock felled to the ground many buildings which had been loosened on their foundations by the previous earthquakes. In the same dispatch it was stated that 20,000 homeless and destitute persons were being fed in Golden Gate Park. The lack of shelter is appalling, and the tentage of the army, which was expected to take care of 20,000 destitute, was lost early in the day by the burning of army headquarters of California, at Mission and Stevenson streets.

A message received at 10:40 stated that the whole district where the post-office and the United States Mint at San Francisco are situated has been totally destroyed.

TODAY'S DISPATCHES.

San Francisco, April 19.—The fire this morning is still raging and is working its way eastward.

San Francisco, April 19.—The fire has reached Nobs Hill, above the residence part of the city. The Fairmont Hotel, the new structure erected by Mrs. Oelrichs, is in flames.

San Francisco, April 19.—Lieutenant Charles C. Hulis, commanding the Twenty-fourth company of light artillery, was blown up by a charge of dynamite at Sixth and Jesse streets, and was probably fatally injured.

San Francisco via Oakland, April 19.—Unless some power stays the onrushing flames, 20,000 homeless people who spent the night under the trees in Golden Gate Park will be swept into the sea. Early this morning the fire reached Devisiabro street, more than a mile from the water front. There the flames fed hungrily on the wooden buildings that lined both sides of the street, for the section is of the older part of the city, and, quickly consuming them, passed on toward the west.

Golden Gate Park is directly in the path of the fire. With a water service that is entirely too feeble, with even tons on tons of dynamite being exploded in its path, it seems that the fire must surely make its way to the park. It will be a matter of only a few hours when it will reach the coast and there is no place whither the refugees in the park can flee except into the waves, should the flames compass them.

Oakland, Cala., April 19.—The fire at San Francisco at this hour is utterly beyond control, and the entire city is doomed. More than one hundred and fifty thousand people are homeless. The city is now a shambles. Firemen are dropping from exhaustion. Some are sleeping under their wagons. The water supply is nil, and the supply of dynamite has been exhausted, so that buildings cannot be blown up to stop the progress of the fire. The excitement is greater this morning than yesterday, and people are hopeless from fear. Women and men are fainting in the streets, while families have been separated, driving parents to distraction for safety of their little ones. Everything is chaos. The situation could not be worse unless a volcano began pouring lava over the stricken metropolis.

Los Angeles, Cala., April 19.—At least two thousand lives have been lost by the earthquake at San Francisco and the conflagration which followed. The hospitals and improvised asylums with difficulty are able to care for the injured, of whom hundreds have been treated. The panic-stricken people, who thus far have escaped injury, are preparing to leave the city in large numbers.

The flames ran along a path in a triangular circuit. The start in the early morning jockeyed as the day waned, left the business section devastated and skipped in a dozen directions to the residence portion of the city.

At night fall the fire had made its way over into North Beach section, and south along the shipping section, down by Bay Shore, over hills and across toward Third and Townsend. Warehouses and manufacturing concerns fell in its path. This completed the entire district known as south of Market street. How far south the flames extended has not been told, as that part of the city is shut off from the city proper.

After darkness thousands of homeless men, women, and children were making their way with blankets and scanty provisions to Golden Gate Park for shelter. Those in homes in Hayes Valley piled their belongings in the streets and express wagons, and automobiles, hauling the things to sparsely settled districts. Everybody in San Francisco, who can, is preparing to leave the city, believing that the town will be totally destroyed. Down town every thing is in ruins; not a business house is standing. Theatres have been crumbled into heaps. All newspapers are useless; the Call and Examiner buildings, including the Call editorial rooms on Strevenson street, are entirely destroyed.

At 10 o'clock last night the Occidental Hotel was destroyed by the flames which swept unchecked across Montgomery street, and attacked the block bounded by Montgomery, Sutter, Bush, and Kearney streets The Merchants' Exchange building was a mass of flames, from basement to tower. The Union Trust building and Crocker and Woolworth Bank buildings were ablaze. The Chronicle building was smoking and other buildings in that block were threatened. Shortly after 10 o'clock the fire had eaten it way southward from Portsmouth Square to Kearney and California streets.

The entire section fronting on the West side of Kearney street seemed doomed. All buildings adjoining the Hall of Justice were ablaze and firemen were striving to save the structure by using dynamite. It is almost certain that every building contained in the section bounded by Clay, Kearney, Market and East streets will be consumed.

The flames had eaten their way westward in the residence section as far as Gough street. By dynamiting block after block, the firemen succeeded in checking the devouring element.

The magnificent church and college of St. Ignatius, on the northwest corner of Vanness avenue and Hayes street, represents in its destruction a material loss of over $1,000,000. The actual cost of the great building was over $900,000, but during the years which have elapsed since its erection the church has been enriched by paintings and frescoes which are priceless.

The scenes last night are beyond description. The flames spread in all four directions. Confusion reigned everywhere. Women fainted and others fought their way into adjacent apartment houses, to rescue something from destruction. The scene made brave men cry. Weeping tots in their mothers' arms, the police and soldiers fighting to get women out of harm's way, and heroic dashes in ambulances and patrol wagons after the sick and injured made a scene long to be remembered. Willing men were driven back while their homes went down before them.

All San Francisco's playhouses, including the Majestic, Columbia and Grand Opera House, are a mass of ruins. The earthquake demolished them for all practical purposes and the fire will complete the work of demolition. The Rialto and Casserly buildings were burned to the ground as was everything in that district.

The Terminus Hotel, at the foot of Market street, fell and buried twenty persons under the debris. These were incinerated and there is no possible way of learning their identity.

The loss will reach $150,000,000 to $200,000,000

The statements were made that expressmen were charging $35 a load to haul goods. The announcement provoked a great deal of indignation and immediate orders were issued from Mayor Schmit in which Chief of Police Dinan heartily concurred. "Tell your men," said the mayor, "to seize the wagons of all such would-be extortionists, and make use of them for the public good."

Los Angeles, Cala., April 19.—Advices received here state that all but two of the university buildings at Stanford are in ruins. Nearly three hundred persons were killed in the collapse of St. Agnes Insane Asylum near Santa Clara. One hundred and fifty bodies have been recovered, and many more are in the ruins. Eighteen Italians were taken out of the Italian Hotel at San Jose. At that place the Presbyterian Church, St. Patricks Cathedral, and High School were destroyed. The new Hall of Justice at San Jose, just completed at a cost of $800,000, was demolished.

At San Jose the Vendome Hotel annex was badly wrecked and ten or fifteen persons were killed. The Doherty block was completely burned and one woman was killed. Every business building was demolished. Martial law has been declared, and the militia and 500 deputies are guarding the streets. It is estimated that fifty persons have been killed.

Passengers arriving from other cities in California bring tales of death and disaster from Santa Cruz, Monterey, Gilroy and Hollister.

San Francisco via Oakland, April 19. 9:10 a. m.—It looks now as if the entire city would be consumed. The fire is sweeping toward the residence districts and threaten to destroy all property which escaped the earthquake.

Five thousand persons are dead and 150,000 made homeless by the frightful holocaust.

United States soldiers are shooting down many ghouls caught robbing the dead or looting the wreckage.

The property loss is increasing hourly and will reach $30,000,000.

Earlier reports of the dead, which were thought to be exaggerated, now seems to be sadly under-estimated. Many believe the roll of dead and injured will reach 10,000.

San Francisco, April 19.—Soldiers with drawn bayonets are preventing fugitives from leaving San Francisco. Many injured have been burned to death as they lay helpless on cots in the hospitals.

Watsonville, Cala., April 19. The country between Monterey, Castroville and Tajaro shows unmistakable signs of the terrific wrenching yesterday in the tremendous upheaval of the earth. Great sinks, extending along the railroad tracks as far as the eye can reach, ranging from four to six feet in depth, have been left on the surface of the earth mute testimony of the internal forces.

For a distance of from a quarter to three quarters of a mile, the road bed dropped from four to six feet.

Between Castroville and Monterey, along the railroad tracks and in the fields mud geysers have been incited into action, spouting boiling hot bluish shale colored mud to a height of from ten to twelve feet. In places the geysers are only from four to ten feet apart, while in other sections they are fifty feet or more apart.

At Fairman, Section Foreman J. S. Hall and Roadmaster Golden saw the geysers in violent action. Mud spouted through the sand and loam.

The railroad tracks for almost the entire distance are twisted out of all semblance to tracks. Between Seaside and Delmonte, beginning a mile from Delmonte, the tracks spread fully many feet and the rails were twisted in all shapes. Near Castroville, while the disturbance was at its height, Foreman H. J. Hall saw the earth open and a crevice fully six feet wide open and close several times. Panic reigned in the famous Hotel Delmonte. The roof and a portion of the upper floor was wrecked and fell upon the guests. Two persons lost their lives. They were a bride and groom from Arizona.

Los Angeles, Cala, April 19.—Santa Rosa City has been destroyed and 10,000 persons are homeless. The dead may reach into the hundreds. Not a business building has been left standing. Main street is one line of charred ruins. The buildings not destroyed by the earthquake were consumed by fire, the water system being destroyed.

People fled to the fields and to the hills and watched the destruction of the city.

New York, April 19.—Western Union Bulletin issued at 2 p. m: "The fire is burning on Mission street as far as Sixteenth and from McAllister street, towards the Bay as far as Broadway.

Murdered on Railway Platform.

New York, April 19.—In the presence of a half hundred persons awaiting a train on the "L" platform, at 110th street, and Eighth avenue, this morning, a negro deliberately murdered another negro and a negress The trio were seen to alight from a northbound train, the woman and one of the negroes being slightly in the advance. Suddenly and without warning, the negro who, to all appearances, had been following the other two, pulled a revolver and began firing. The first shot struck the woman in the back, and she fell dead. Her companion was seized with fright and started to run away, but the murderer was too quick for him, and another bullet landed in the negro's head, killing him instantly.

Jumping over the dead body of the man the murderer ran down the stairs to 109th street, and disappeared over that thoroughfare. Who the dead persons are is unknown. In the pockets of the man was found a brass check, which showed that he was or had been employed by the New York Contracting Company. By this the police expect to be able to identify the dead and get a clue to the murderer.

Fortune Swept Away.

New York, April 19.—"Practically all of my property is in ruins. I can't give a subscription. I am as poor as any one else. This spoke Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, who before her marriage was Miss Theresa Alice Fair, of California, daughter of the late Senator James G. Fair, and who is prostrated today at her Fifth avenue home over the anxiety for her relatives and friends and the loss of a great part of her fortune in the San Francisco disaster. "It's terrible," she exclaimed, "I can't bear to think of it. It was my home. But all is gone now. From what I hear, everything I own has been swept away."

Town Threatened With Destruction.

Millville, N. J., April 19.—A fire which started at six o'clock this morning, threatens to wipe out the entire town of Minotola, located thirteen miles east of this city, in Atlantic county. The town depends entirely on the glass bottle manufacturing plant of the George Jonas Company, and this is reported destroyed. Many residences have been burned and the flames are spreading. A general call has been sent out for assistance to the surrounding country and aid has gone to the place from Vineland Landis and this city. No lives are reported lost.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 19.—The one important market influence which prevailed this morning was the affection of a large number of interests concerned in San Francisco advices liquidating security holdings in this market in order to provide quick financial resources for the purpose of meeting demands from San Francisco.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? The Coe-Brockett Wedding.

As stated in the Gazette of that day Miss Martha Townsend Brockett, of this city, daughter of the late Walter Burnett Brockett, and Mr. Theodore Irving Coe, of New York, were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Brockett, on north Washington street. The wedding was one of the prettiest and most fashionable that has taken place in many seasons. Guests were present from Washington, Baltimore, New York, New Orleans, Denver, Germantown and other places. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James M. Nourse, of Washington. The bride entered the parlor in which the wedding was held leaning on the arm of her cousin, Mr. A. D. Brockett, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white satin, with her veil caught with diamond and pearl ornaments, which were worn by her mother and grandmother. She was attended by little Miss Collins Jones, of Alexandria, and little Miss Catherine King, of Germantown, Pa., as flower girls. They were dressed in white, with pink sashes, and carried baskets of sweet peas. Mr. Edwin C. French, of New Orleans, was best man, and Master Clarence Boice Nourse was ring-bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given, at which the numerous wedding guests were entertained. The wedding party was seated in the dining-room, while the guests were served from the breakfast room.

After the reception the bride and groom left for a wedding tour, and subsequently will make their home at New Rochelle, N. Y.

The list of wedding presents includes many rare and beautiful works of art.

Among the out-of-town guests were Senator McEnnery, of Louisiana; Mrs. M. Coe-Smith, of Pueblo, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Mason and their daughters, the Misses Mason; General and Mrs. Merriam; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nourse and others, of Washington; Mr Irving H. Coe, of Bridgeport, Conn., father of the groom; his brother, Mr. Eugene W. Coe, of Waterbury, Conn; Mrs. J. S. Myers, of Westminster, Md., and many others.

D. A. R.

After the morning session the Virginia delegation to the D. A. R. Congress now in session in Washington met in Continental hall with Mrs. Eleanor S. Washington Howard, Virginia State regent, presiding. The action of the Roanoke Conference of last October in selecting Mrs. S. W. Jamison, of Roanoke, as State regent, was confirmed. It was announced that the Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution had succeeded in raising the money necessary for the erection of the Virginia column in Continental hall. As a number of the Virginia delegates were absent it was decided to postpone until Tuesday the selection of the vice-president general for the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution from Virginia. Great pressure is being brought to bear on Mrs. Howard, who declined the office last fall, to accept it. The names of Mrs. A. E. Heneberger, of Harrisonburg, and Mrs. T. B. Lyons, of Charlottesville, are prominently mentioned for the honor.

The following are the delegates from Mt. Vernon Chapter, this city, to the D. A. R. Congress: Regent, Mrs. Frances J. Robinson; delegate, Mrs. Kate W. Barrett; alternates, Mrs John H. Foster, Miss Caroline Wise, Mrs. W. B. Smoot, Mrs. S. L. Monroe, Mrs. Robert Reese, Miss Susan Hetzel, Mrs. Charles E. Brown, Mrs. William Wattles, Mrs. Mary G. Powell, Mrs. George Calvert; past State regent, Mrs. Eleanor S. Washington Howard.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson, regent of Mt. Vernon Chapter, has issued invitations to the Virginia delegation to attend a reception at her home in this city on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Samuel W. Jamison, the incoming Virginia State regent.

The Circuit Court.

In the Virginia news of the Gazette of Monday it was mentioned that Judge Charles E. Nicol held his last term as circuit judge in Loudoun county. The salaries of judges of the Circuit Courts and the Corporation Courts are paid jointly by the State, cities and counties. The salary of the judge of the Circuit Court is $2,500, of which $1,250 was paid by the State and the balance divided into six parts—Alexandria city, Alexandria county, Fauquier, Loudoun, Fairfax and Prince William—the apportionment being on the basis of population. The population of the sixteenth circuit in 1900 was 95,972, and Loudoun and Fauquier together furnished 45,322 of this number, and $590.30 of the judges' salary. Alexandria city has heretofore paid $189.23 of the circuit judge's salary, and $1,000 of the corporation judge's salary. After July 1, 1907, the city will pay over $350.00 of Judge Nicol's, and $1,250 of Judge Barley's salary, or a total of $1,600, which is $200 more than the city paid under the old law, when the salary of the judge of the Corporation Court was $1,400 paid by the city, the State paying the salary of the circuit judges.

Chesapeake Presbytery.

The Chesapeake Presbytery began its sessions in Leesburg yesterday. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. C. W Hollis, of Greenwich, and Rev. William Chinn, of Warrenton, the retiring moderator, delivered an address and presided at the session at night, when the Presbytery was reorganized and Rev. L. F. Harper, of Bealeton, was made moderator and Rev. George M. Matthis, of Culpeper, stated clerk. At the opening session about 15 ministers answered the roll-call. The session will continue three days.

Opera House.

An average crowd was at the Opera House last night to witness the production of "Our Busy Day," by the Bonnie Vance Comedy. The comedy was excellently presented and many a hearty laugh was enjoyed by those present. The Vance company is certainly good, and the plays presented show careful study. The specialties were of a nature calculated to please any one, and included some very fine dancing. Tonight the company will present "After the Ball," one of the best comedies in its repertoire. The specialties will be changed in every particular.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Annie Freeman colored, and Francis Bryan, arrested by Officers Bell and Garvey charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $2 50 each.

A white man, arrested by Officer Mayhugh for improper conduct in the street, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

A white man arrested by Officer Henderson for being drunk in the street, was dismissed with an admonition.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Captain Upton H. Herbert took place this afternoon from St. Paul's Church, and was attended by numbers of relatives and friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, assisted by Rev. S. A. Wallis. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. E. E. Mason, Herbert Bryant, H. R. Dulany, Thos. Fairfax, R. F. Knox, J. T. Burke, and the active pallbearers are Messrs. J H. McCauley, Wm. Bryant, A Herbert and L. Washington. The interment was in the family lot in Ivy Hill cemetery.

Anniversary.

Today is the forty-fifth anniversary of the passage through Baltimore of the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, which was resisted by citizens, and when the first blood of the civil war was shed. In the fighting which ensued scores of soldiers and citizens were killed and wounded. The bloodshed was only stopped by Marshal Kane interposing a large force of policemen between the two belligerents. The affair created great excitement in Alexandria, and when the news was received in this city the Gazette issued an extra giving a full description of the conflict.

The Fish Market.

Fishtown was more active this morning than at any other time during the season. Two vessels were being unloaded and cutters were busily at work. The effluvium from the offal was decidedly in evidence. This odor mingling with that emanating from fertilizer factories rendered the extreme northeastern section of the city unpleasant to some. The demand for fish is still brisk and prices are well maintained.

Alexandria gillers are reporting more satisfactory "drifts." Shad, however, are by no means plentiful.

Bail Jumper Caught.

Robert Smith, 65 years old, wanted at Chicago for felonious assault, having jumped a $700 bond, was arrested in Washington Tuesday. Detective Sergeant Teney left with the prisoner for Chicago Tuesday evening. Smith had found employment in one of the glass works in this city, and went to the post-office in Washington Tuesday to receive his mail, resulting in his arrest.

Endless-Chain Prayer.

The endless-chain prayer, which has disturbed some people in other cities, has reached Alexandria. The recipients are directed to read the prayer nine times, make nine copies and give them to nine persons. Dire disaster, it is claimed, will come upon all who refuse or neglect to carry out these instructions, while blessings will follow all who obey.

Telegram of Condolence.

Mayor Paff today sent the following dispatch to the Mayor of San Francisco. His honor in a few words expresses the feeling manifested in Alexandria for the unfortunate people on the Pacific coast:

Alexandria, April 19, 1906.

E. E. Schmitz, Mayor, San Francisco:

Our citizens are much grieved over sad news, and, if commanded, stand ready to assist. F. J. PAFF, Mayor.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lanston Monotype Machine Company was held in this city today for the purpose of electing a board of directors.

Auction Sale.

On the first page of today's Gazette will be found the advertisement of the sale of real estate of the late J. H. D. Smoot. Messrs. F. L. Smith, S. G. Brent and E. B. Taylor are the commissioners, and Capt. R. F. Knox will be the auctioneer. The sale will take place one month from today in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall.

Police Commissioners.

The Board of Police Commissioners last night continued the investigation of the conduct of certain members of the police force. Several witnesses were examined. There will be another meeting tonight. It is thought that the investigation will close this week.

Olivet to Calvary.

As heretofore stated, the choir of St. Paul's Church, assisted by Mr. Kenneth Ogden, will sing "Olivet to Calvary" at the church tonight. The choir has had the work in preparation for some time and a fine rendition is expected.

REMNANT DAY.

Scores of remnants and short lengths in in Colored and Black Dress Goods, and all sorts of Wash Fabrics. Our rule of always cutting lengths to suit customers creates great quantities of remnants. The accumulation this week consists of the newest and brightest spring styles, and the lengths are sufficient for a separate skirt, a waist, a child's frock, a boy's or girl's shirt waist. We have made the prices very low in order to sell quickly.

There are also multitudes of odds and ends, incomplete lines, broken sizes and assortments, &c. These, together with any merchandise not strictly perfect or not measuring up to our high standard, and any particular styles of goods that lag or have not sold as quickly as we think they should, are treated is remnants, and by force of a reduced price will be closed out immediately. Thus you are afforded an opportunity to buy seasonable and desirable merchandise at a decided saving, and we are enabled to keep our stocks complete, fresh and attractive all the time.

Cause of the Accident.

The recent accident on the Kearsarge was without precedent in the American or any other navy so far as known. A cablegram from Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, from Caimanera, Cuba, forecasts the probable finding of the court of injuiry which is now in progress to ascertain the cause of the explosion and fix the responsibility. He says that the accident was probably caused by fused metal from an electric switch, which was short circuited by accidental contract with a shell extractor during the operation of withdrawing a charge from a gun after the completion of target practice. This extractor is eight feet long and is never kept in the turret, but is passed in from above only when needed to draw a charge. So it is regarded as one of the most singular accidents in naval records, but still one impossible in the very latest type of battleships, owing to the improvement in electrical appliances in the last few years.

Waylaid by Negroes.

One man was fatally and another seriously shot by three negroes who waylaid them in Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday night. Faro Amato and Luke Sebella, both Italians, were the victims. Amato will die. The two Italians had been making a call at the house of some friends in Sacramento street. Leaving the house the men proceeded down the street, and when at the corner of Enterprise and Wilson streets three negroes stepped from behind a growth of large castor beans and commenced firing at the Italians with pistols. Amato fell to the pavement at the first fire and Sebella ran. After firing six shots the negroes took to their heels and disappeared in the darkness. The shooting is believed to be the result of a recent race war between negroes and Italians in the colony in the neighborhood of where the shooting occurred.

Danger From The Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed at E. S.
